

No formal gravity zones exist in Hungary.

Remarks: Hungary is a small flat land, therefore in most cases there isn't a big difference between gravity.

the verification for accuracy class III and IIII is valid throughout the country, the verification for accuracy class II valid in the town or village, the verification for accuracy class I is valid only in actual place of use.